Hubbell, Charles O. [subject]

Plymouth United Savings Bank [writer]

November 13, 1903

[Having sent Charles Hubbell coins on approval and not having received payment, the Chapman's ask his reference, his local bank, whether he still runs a drugstore in Plymouth. The bank responds that Hubbell is indeed still in the local drug business, but also offers that he is not very trustworthy when it comes to paying bills on time.]

Dear Sir:-

on Feb. 12th last, we received a letter from Mr. C. O. Hubbell, proprietor of Hubbell's Pharmacy, Plymouth, Mich, asking us to furnish a lot of coins on approval. These we sent him Feb. 28th and we have never been able to get payment, nor hear from him since that time. He gave you as reference. Kindly let us know if he is still in Plymouth, and if not, where we can locate him, as he has failed to reply to a letter written him about ten days ago.

2^d Enclosed for postage

Yours respectfully,

H. H. Chapman

Mr Hubbell is still in the Drug business here but does not bear a very good reputation as far as paying bills is concerned
